

Scrofula and Consumption

People tainted with scrofula very often develop consumption. Anemia, running of the ear, scaly eruptions, imperfect digestion, and enlargement and breaking down of the glands of the neck, are some of the more prominent of scrofula symptoms—are forerunners of consumption. These conditions can be arrested, consumption prevented and health restored by the early use of A Mile a Minute Down the Alps.

The spot in the Swiss Alps that attracts the winter sportsmen of Europe is the Cresta run, at St. Moritz, which is just one mile in length. The tobogganing season here begins about the middle of November, when the first snow falls. The condition of the run is not left to chance, but the slide is prepared under the direction of a committee. Swiss toboggans in contrast to the Canadian ones, made entirely of wood, are raised on runners shod with iron or steel. The expert rider lies prone upon the toboggan, head foremost, both hands grasping the framework at the sides and both feet employed in steering. Iron spikes are secured to the toes of the boots, and by trailing one or the other foot along the ground the big sled may be guided. But as this fashion of steering tends to diminish the speed the most skilled riders use the feet as little as possible and depend upon shifting the position. Though the Cresta run is a mile in length, the whole distance may be covered in 70 seconds. At the steepest point a mile a minute is made.

The Dangerous End.

An Ass once enveloped himself in a Lion's Skin, hoping that he would thereby escape annoyance from the Rest of the Brute Creation.

But seeing a Tiger approaching, and fearing his inability to look as fierce as his assumed character required, he at once turned his back toward the Tiger and remained motionless.

"Ah," said the Tiger to himself, "for once mine ancient enemy, the Lion, has relaxed his usual vigilance. I'll steal upon him from behind, and there'll be a funeral in the morning."

But his Vicious Spring was met by the Heels of the Ass, and lo! the Tiger had predicted his own funeral.

Moral.—It's usually Policy to Attack the Enemy in the Rear, but there are Exceptions to every Rule. Always remember, in dealing with an Ass (human or otherwise), that the end containing his Brains is less Dangerous than the one furnished with Heels.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A. R. De Fluent, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." DEATH OF OSMAN PASHA.

Hero of Plevna Passes Away at the Age of 68 Years.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 21.—Osman Pasha, the hero of Plevna and the greatest Turkish soldier of recent times, is dead. He was 68 years old. His defense of Plevna against an overwhelming Russian force in 1876 gave Osman enormous prestige. By the intrenchments he caused to be thrown up he resisted the Russians. In three pitched battles he overcame the fiercest troops of the czar's armies. On July 18, 1876, he inflicted a loss of 3,000 killed and wounded on his "enemies." The next battles cost the Russians 137 officers and many men.

Broker Goodman Arrested.

NEW ORLEANS, March 22.—Alfred Clark Goodman, the cotton future broker, whose failure on the Cotton Exchange was announced two weeks ago, has been indicted by the grand jury for the misappropriation of $3,000 entrusted to him by J. M. Prester, a resident of Comanche, Tex. Goodman has been arrested.

Will Discuss the Negro Question.

CHATTANOOGA, March 22.—Dr. D. W. Cole of Waco, Tex., has accepted an invitation to address the Southern Industrial convention on the race question as a delegate from politics. Dr. Barrington of the University of Virginia and H. T. Keating, editor of The Review at Philadelphia, will address the convention on this question.

Finns Seek Refuge in America.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—The Red Star line steamship Switzerland, which has arrived here from Antwerp, brought nearly 200 Finns, who are said to be the first of many thousands fleeing from the cruelty of the government of the czar of Russia. The party will locate in Minneapolis and in Montana.

"I think I would go crazy with pain were it not for Chamberlain's Pain Balm," writes Mr. W. H. Stapleton, Herminie, Pa. "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for several years and have tried remedies without number, but Pain Balm is the best medicine I have got hold of." One application relieves the pain. Rules for Lent.

All the faithful who have completed their twenty-first year and who have not begun their sixtieth year, and who are not exempted from the obligation of fasting by sickness, hard work or other well known reasons, are obliged to fast on all the days of Lent, except Sundays.

On those days but one full meal is allowed, which should not be taken before noon.

Custom allows a cup of coffee, tea or thin chocolate, and a small piece of bread or a cracker, to be taken in the morning; and in the evening, a collation, not exceeding the fourth part of an ordinary meal, is allowed. At this collation, butter, cheese, milk, eggs and all kinds of fruit, fish and vegetables are allowed. When the principal meal cannot without grave inconvenience be taken at noon, it is permissible to take the collation in the morning and the dinner in the evening.

Abstinence from the use of flesh is enjoined on all the Wednesdays and Fridays of Lent and on the Saturday of Ember Week and on Holy Saturday.

The use of lard is allowed in cooking.

Fish and flesh are not allowed at the same meal, even on Sundays.

Eggs, cheese, milk and butter may be used every day, but abstinence from all of these is recommended on Good Friday.

Persons exempted from the obligation of fasting are not bound by the restriction of using meat but once a day on the days in which the use of meat is permitted by dispensation.

Children over seven years of age are bound by the law of abstinence, unless excused by sickness or other causes.

The paschal time, in which all Catholics who have come to the years of discretion are bound to receive holy communion worthily, extends from the first Sunday of Lent till Trinity Sunday, inclusive. Children over seven years of age are bound by the precept of annual confession. Pastors and parents should see that the children comply with this duty.

The holy season of Lent is a time of prayer, of sorrow for sin, of seclusion from the world and its amusements, and of generous almsgiving.

By a special indult granted to the bishops of the United States for ten years, dating from March 15, 1895, working people, who cannot easily observe the common law of the church, are dispensed from the obligation of abstinence on all days of the year except Fridays, Ash Wednesday, Holy Week and Christmas Eve. This dispensation does not exempt from the additional obligation of fasting, where such exists, nor does it authorize the use of fish and flesh at the same meal.

It includes, however, not only the individual workers in whose favor it is granted, but all the members of their families as well. In return it is expected that those who avail themselves of this indult will endeavor to enter into the spirit of the holy season of Lent by voluntary acts of mortification, penance and almsgiving. A most praiseworthy custom is that of abstaining during Lent from stimulants, in honor of the sacred thirst of our divine Savior.

Those who entertain any reasonable doubt about their obligation to fast or abstain, ought to apply to their pastor or confessor for advice.

Women suffering from female troubles and weakness, and from irregular or painful menses, ought not to lose hope if doctors cannot help them. Physicians are so busy with other diseases that they do not understand fully the peculiar ailments and the delicate organism of woman. What the sufferer ought to do is to give a fair trial to which is the true cure provided by Nature for all female troubles. It is the formula of a physician of the highest standing, who devoted his whole life to the study of the distinct ailments peculiar to our mothers, wives and daughters. It is made of soothing, healing, strengthening herbs and vegetables, which have been provided by a kindly Nature to cure irregularity in the menses, Leucorrhoea, Falling of the Womb, Nervousness, Headache and Backache. In fairness to herself and to Bradfield's Female Regulator, every suffering woman ought to give it a trial. A large $1 bottle will do a wonderful amount of good. Sold by druggists.
